Successful Completion of Latest ISO 9001:2015 Surveillance Audit

April 2025 — Automann is proud to announce the successful completion of its latest ISO 9001:2015 surveillance audit of 2024. This internationally recognized standard highlights Automann's dedication to quality across the design, contract manufacturing, and distribution of aftermarket truck parts at all US company locations.

Having maintained ISO certification since 2001, this recent audit reaffirms Automann's unwavering commitment to operational excellence, customer satisfaction, and continuous improvement. The audit included a comprehensive evaluation of Automann's Quality Management System (QMS), underscoring its robust processes and proactive quality practices.

"Achieving this ISO 9001:2015 recertification reinforces our commitment to delivering consistent quality and value to our customers. It's a reflection of the hard work and dedication of our entire team, and the systems we've built to drive efficiency, accountability, and continuous improvement across every aspect of our operations."

— CJ Khanduja, Vice President

Copies of the updated ISO 9001:2015 certificate are available on our website or by contacting the Automann Quality Department.
