Automann Adds Shark Industries Abrasive & Welding Products

Shark Industries is one of North America's premier companies in the abrasive and welding sectors. Established in 1983, Shark Industries specializes in crafting high-performance products tailored specifically for mechanics, technicians, welders, and fabricators across various industries. The company takes pride in its commitment to quality, employing rigorous standards at every stage of production to ensure that each product meets the highest benchmarks of durability and efficiency.

Furthermore, Shark Industries fosters a welcoming family culture that emphasizes collaboration and support among employees, reinforcing their dedication to customer satisfaction. This combination of meticulous craftsmanship and a positive workplace environment guarantees that customers can confidently choose, knowing they are selecting reliable and top-notch tools for their projects.

Automann is now stocking a diverse range of Shark's Abrasive and Welding equipment. This selection includes high-quality abrasive tools and welding supplies. Our commitment to stocking these premium products ensures that customers can access reliable and effective welding and abrasive application solutions.
